WHEREAS, AS 29.45.030(e) and Cordova Municipal Code 5.36.035(A) exempt from real property taxation the first $150,000 of the assessed value of real property owned and occupied as the primary residence and permanent place of abode by a resident sixty-five years of age or older; and

WHEREAS, AS 29.45.030(f) requires the City, by ordinance, to establish procedures and deadlines for filing an application for this property tax exemption, and provides that the Council may waive the failure to make timely application for good cause shown; and

WHEREAS, Cordova Municipal Code 5.36.035(C) requires that an application for a senior citizen exemption from City real property tax must be filed no later than January 15 of each assessment year; and

WHEREAS, Cordova Municipal Code 5.36.035(C) also provides that the Council, for good cause shown, may authorize the assessor to accept as timely filed an application filed after January 15 and before May 1 of the assessment year for which the exemption is sought; and

WHEREAS, Evelyn Chappell has requested that the Council waive her failure to make timely application for a senior citizen property tax exemption for the 2009 tax year, and pursuant to AS 29.45.030(f) the Council finds that good cause has been shown to waive the failure of Evelyn Chappell to make timely application for a senior citizen property tax exemption for the 2009 tax year; and

WHEREAS, Evelyn Chappell already has paid real property taxes for the 2009 tax year on the property that would be the subject of the application for exemption, and AS 29.45.030(f) provides that if an application for exemption is approved after taxes have been paid, the amount of tax that the claimant has already paid for the exempted property shall be refunded to the claimant.
