

Silent Auction Rules and Guidelines

Bidder #

(to be assigned at auction)

NOTE: Retain this list of auction rules for your reference.

You will use your bidder number in place of your name when bidding for items to preserve anonymity.

Silent Auction Rules:

1. By bidding in the Cordova Police Department's silent auction, each bidder agrees to these auction rules.
2. All sales are final. There will be no exchanges or refunds. All items are "as is." The Cordova Police Department has attempted to describe and catalog items correctly, but neither warrants nor represents and in no event shall be responsible for the correctness of descriptions, genuineness, authorship, provenance, or condition of the items. No statement made in this catalog, or made orally at the auction or elsewhere, shall be deemed such a warranty, representation, or assumption of liability.
3. The auction item value listed is an estimate of fair market value. Items have not been appraised unless so noted. The amount you pay above this fair market value estimate is normally tax deductible as a charitable contribution. Please consult your tax adviser to clarify amount of deduction.
4. Payment for items purchased must be made in full on the night of the auction to the cashier. The Cordova Police Department accepts cash, MasterCard, Visa, or a check made payable to Cordova Police Department. Please allow 15 minutes after the silent auction bidding has closed before reporting to the cashier.
5. Following payment(s), you may pick up your purchase(s) in the checkout area. You must show your paid receipt for items to be picked up.
6. The purchaser must pick up all items the night of the auction, unless special arrangements are made. Any item left unclaimed, without prior arrangements, will be sold and proceeds will go to the Cordova Police Department.
7. The Cordova Police Department reserves the right to add or withdraw items, without notice, to or from the auction. Each person bidding assumes all risks and hazards related to the auction and items obtained at the auction. Each bidder agrees to hold harmless from any liability arising indirectly from the Cordova Police Department, their elected and appointed officials, members and employees, the event organizers, sponsors, and/or volunteers connected with the auction.
8. The winning bidder must be present at the event to retrieve their item.
9. The winning bidder must present legal identification to an Officer present. A background check will be performed to verify the winner may legally possess a firearm.
